Filmed In Supermarionation

Synopsis

The story of the pioneering team that launched the television classic, Thunderbirds! Filmed in Supermarionation details the rise and fall of the puppet empire that rose from the Slough Trading Estate in the 1960s and created television shows such as Captain Scarlet, Stingray, Fireball XL5, Joe 90 and, of course, Thunderbirds. Packed with interviews from the original cast and crew, this Kindle edition also contains rare pictures and a lengthy section of extra features including previously unpublished storylines and original studio paperwork.

Customer Reviews

Interesting to find out how flawed Gerry Anderson was with respect to people management. Gerry had vision and could inspire and was technically brilliant but the tightly knit team of creatives he built up were not equally well rewarded for their success and Gerry never seem to realise that this poisons teams & leads to dissension and breakups. But no Gerry and no fantastic special effects to feed all those movies of the 60's and 70's, plus the wonderful Thunderbirds..

This is perfect if you're a fan of Gerry Anderson's Supermarionation shows of the '60's.
